

From the previous system design, we have updated the design by removing the pharmacy feature and have reduced other explicit functionalities such as validation and integrated within the authentication and account creation. Below are the old and updated class and usecase diagram of the system.

Old class diagram

Updated class diagram:

Old use case diagram:

New usecase diagram:

